Has FII turned Net Buyers in Dec 2024?

FII's turn buyers in December, they buy equities worth Rs 14,435 crore.

"FIIs turning buyers in early December, in total reversal of their sustained selling strategy during the last two months, has altered the market sentiments."

In October, the total FIIs selling through exchanges was Rs 113858 crores. The exodus slowed down a bit to remain at Rs 39315 crores in November. Due to which, the market witnessed a major correction over the past two months.

Market continues rebounding and markets extended their recovery for the third consecutive week, gaining over 2% amid mixed cues. Both midcap and small cap indices surged over 4%, surprising market participants.

All major sectors contributed to the rally, with realty, metal, IT, and banking emerging as top gainers. while FMCG underperformed.

Weekly Market Pulse

Domestic equity markets rose for the fourth consecutive week as key benchmark indices BSE Sensex and Nifty 50 rose 0.52% and 0.37%, respectively. The mid-cap segment closed the week in green, however, the small-cap segment closed the week in red.

Domestic equity markets rose during the week led by heavyweight information technology stocks following an in-line U.S. CPI data of Nov 2024 which cemented expectations of another interest rate cut from the Federal Reserve in Dec 2024 monetary policy meeting.

Sentiment was boosted after China's senior leadership committed to easing monetary policy and offering additional support to bolster the faltering economy.

On the BSE sectoral front, BSE IT rose 2.62% as investors braced for a rate cut by the U.S. Federal Reserve in its Dec 2024 policy meeting following an in-line U.S. retail inflation print of Nov 2024. Additionally, expectation of an increase in U.S. spending propelled the information technology sector.

BSE Consumer Durables gained 1.76% on expectations of a revival in consumer spending driven by the year-end holidays.
